a) Your Service...Your Voice - Scottish Fire and Rescue Service. Closing date: 30 August 2018

The Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) is engaging with people across Scotland on their proposals for transforming to make Scotland's communities safer. As a national service, with a very local presence, they know how important it is to people living in those communities to understand what SFRS transformation would mean for them. For that reason, the Board will be meeting in Stranraer on Thursday, 30 August and invite communities to go along to discuss the Board's transformation proposals and what they might mean for the area.

Meeting is at 2pm for 2:30pm at the North West Castle Hotel. RSVP by Friday 17 August to SFRS.BoardSupport@firescotland.gov.uk
